Molloy-Rourke Case Comes up for Trial

New Haven, Nov. 30 .- The case of Thomas H. Molloy against Thomas P. Rourke, is assigned for today to come up in the Superior court before Judge up in the Superior court before Judge Curtis, and barring unforeseen happenings will go on trial. Ex-Aiderman Molloy, like Michael Goode, also claims a larger share of the profits of the famous Water street land deal, and it is the opinion of some that this case will be of more interest of the two as it may to some extent involve politics, and bring out more of the inside of the deal than the Goode case did.

POULTRY FANCIERS TO MEET. There will be a meeting of the Bridgeport Poultry, Pigeon & Pet Stock Association Thursday evening in the Court Exchange building. A large attendance is requested. There may not be another meeting before the show.

Not Many Store-Sales Are Uninfluenced by Store-Advertising!

The store-sales to-day that are uninfluenced, directly or indirectly, by store-advertising will not have amounted to ten per cent, the total business of the day. By the direct influence of advertising meant the sales of articles specifically advertised. By the indired in luence of advertising is meant the articles sold that are not specifically advertised, but are displayed to the customers who are draw to the store BY THE ADVERTISED ARTICLES. In the latter case as surely as in the first, the advertising must be credited with the sale.

Observant merchants know that this is true. They also mrage from the knowledge to strengthen their advertishings to the point of matching their store-hopes and plant
